COLLATERAL

HORNBY CASTLE, LANCASHIRE.—Messrs. SHARPE AND PALEY, ARCHITECTS.

THE BUILDING IN HORNBY CASTLE, LANCASHIRE, is a fine example of the architecture of the late 18th and early 19th centuries. It is a large, two-story building with a central tower and a series of wings. The building is constructed of brick and has a variety of window styles, including some with decorative lintels. The architecture is a blend of Georgian and Regency styles. The building is surrounded by a large garden with many trees and a path leading to the entrance.
